Our Speakers

Becky Harcourt

Becky leads alongside her husband, Paul, at All Saints' Woodford Wells in NE London, and is a member of New Wine's National Leadership Team. She enjoys teaching, mentoring and generally helping people understand and grow in their discipleship. Becky has a personal testimony of how God delivered her from a burden of guilt and shame, so she is passionate about helping others know the same is available to them. She has two adult children, both on the autistic spectrum, which has presented daily challenges but has added a richness to life that would otherwise be lacking.

Julia Chamberlin

Julia recently returned to her local roots when her husband David became Priest-in-Charge of King's Beck in North Norfolk. Julia's shared passion is hospital chaplaincy and work with children. She was until recently chaplain at Hinchingsbrooke Hospital in Huntingdon, and is now a 'bank' chaplain at James Paget Hospital, alongside a new role as Children, Youth and Families Project Adviser for the Diocese of Norwich. She has four adult children and four grandchildren. Julia is passionate about encouraging the church to show and share God's love in our communities.
